

HOUSE OF EUROPEAN HISTORY

Title: Bringing the House of European History straight to your classroom

Category: Online workshop for teachers

Event Type: Workshops

Event Category: Partner programme with European Schools

Event Language: English, French, German

The House of European History is bringing Europe's history to life with the upcoming launch of its new virtual tour. This workshop is designed to help you practice using it, and give you the tools so you can confidently teach your class about European integration.

With our new virtual tour, digital visitors will be invited to try out the museum's online exhibition with dynamic storytelling and a range of content - including video footage of a real curator from the House of European History who introduces the different sections of the museum. Join the workshop and learn how to expertly navigate this latest online tool.

The virtual tour will shine a light on the milestones of European Integration through exciting stories, unique objects and primary sources. It will also invite you to foster a more comprehensive understanding of today's European Union by reflecting on the origins of the EU project; the importance of compromises; the values of the EU and elections; the successes, failures and challenges of the EU so far.

HOUSE OF EUROPEAN HISTORY

The House of European History, is a project of the European Parliament, and presents shared European phenomena that have helped shape the continent.

By interpreting history from a collective European perspective, it connects and compares shared experiences and their diverse interpretations.
